Graduate School of Business, Cape Town, South Africa

Session 2 (El buen vivir – climate change and human well being)

11:00am – 12:30pm, Rooftop

‘Pathways of livelihoods and a “good life” in a climate crisis in unequal societies’

Speakers: University of Michigan, David Lam; Malebo Seleetse, Department of Forestry, Fisheries and Environment South Africa; Belynda Petrie, One World (tbc); Fabio Andres Dias Pabón, ACEIR

Facilitator: Ruth Beukman

Abstract:

This session contextualises dynamics of human development, and well-being in the climate crisis. The guiding question is how to safeguard livelihoods in the social response to changing availability and access to natural resources. Diverse speakers will discuss the role of international collaboration and transformative institutions in managing new dynamics of inequalities and conflict in access to resources and mitigating impacts on human well-being.

Lunch: 12:30pm – 1:30pm
